to Utah had been understood by the pioneer leaders and if they had of known the splendid officers and personnel of the "Expedition" and the instructions they had received from the war department, many of the complications which took place would not have occurred. But the people of Utah had no way of knowing those facts since the government had taken great care to keep them uninformed. Thus much of the entire affair came about as a result of a complete misunderstanding between the settlers of Utah and the United States Government. It took time to clear away those misunderstandings and place the Utahns and the government on amicable terms again.
